Tutors: Join the RLA Parent Tutoring Resource List

Rising Leaders Academy families sometimes ask us to recommend a tutor. To give every qualified tutor an equal chance, we're putting together a list we can share with parents when they ask, and we invite qualified tutors to apply.

Who can apply

Anyone who meets both of these requirements may be added to the list:

- A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university
- Teaching experience (classroom teaching, tutoring, or other instructional experience)

Tutoring location

Right now, tutoring can't take place at the school. Tutors and families will need to meet somewhere else, such as a tutoring center, public library, the family's home, online, or at a location agreed upon between family and tutor.

How to apply

Email RisingLeadersAcademy@gmail.com with the subject line "Tutor List" by November 6 and include:

- Your full name, phone number, and email address
- A copy of your diploma or transcript showing your bachelor's degree
- A short description of your teaching experience (where, how long, and what grades or subjects)
- Any teaching certifications you hold (optional)
- The grades and subjects you tutor
- Whether you tutor in person, online, or both
- Your preferred location for tutoring
- Your general availability and rates
